To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to present this letter of recommendation for Scott Carbonara. He is an outstanding facilitator, speaker, storyteller and trainer.

I first saw Scott speak at the ASTD Charlotte Chapter meeting in January 2013. I immediately knew I wanted to ask him to be our closing speaker for our annual Learning and Development Summit at UNC Charlotte that was held on October 4, 2013.

Even after a full day of content, as our final speaker he completely captivated and engaged an audience of 115 people! What a perfect way to end our event! As I looked around the room, I saw people nodding in agreement, some vigorously taking notes so that they didn't miss a thing and others sitting on the edge of their seat in anticipation of the next "nugget" of content. Scott presented thought provoking information that was both reflective and actionable weaving humor into each topic. Our participants left the event invigorated with Scott's infectious positive attitude and specific tools to take back to their organizations to engage their employees.

I plan on utilizing Scott's talents again in the near future and recommend that you do as well.

Should you have any questions or need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me at 704-687-8723 or awartham@uncc.edu.
